Chapter 1 by Hannah

Waves of smoke hitting my nose jumped me from my hallucinative state I looked to the floor finding a small needle. I snorted as I looked at it. "This is what took me down." I looked around waiting for the jokester to stirr. Not a thing nor person could be heard. Panic welled in my chest as I realized this was not the academy. No one here was my friend. The walls were black with the same color looming on the floor. I looked to the ceiling to find only to my dissapointment. No lights. This was certainly personal. Whoever took me knew my secret and all I could do was wait. I was not gonna use my powers unless absolutely necessary. I only used them once or twice willingly. Every dawn it was forced awake inside me. Fire and a lot would loome these walls soon I had to get out before the sun was born.

"Hello Phoenix." the walls seemed hiss.
